

Melbourne, VIC

Project Description

The Suburban Rail Loop (SRL) East project includes a 16-kilometer twin tunnel section from Cheltenham to Box Hill. This work involves constructing underground station boxes at Clayton and Monash, 55 cross passages, and tunnel portals at the stabling facility. Construction is underway, with tunneling set to begin in 2026, creating thousands of jobs and enhancing public transport connectivity in Melbourne's eastern and southeastern suburbs.

Clients

CPB Contractors Ghella Acciona Joint Venture

JAGCON Group Role

JAGCON Group worked with the CPB Contractors Ghella Acciona Joint Venture providing SME reviews, digital engineering support & senior engineers throughout the lifecycle of the project.

Project Services:

- SME Reviews
- Value Engineering
- Strategic Advice
- Planning & Constructability
- Digital Engineering

Project Delivery Roles:

- Senior Electrical Engineer
- Digital Engineer

Project Value

$3.6 Billion

Sector

Tunnelling, Transport, Rail, Infrastructure, Major Civil Works, Major Projects

